Production plans of individual firms in SAG AMO

1. In Annex A appear planned and actual production figures for the second quarter of 1953, for the following firms of which SAG AMO Magdeburg, is composed:

Ernst Thaelmann Werk, Magdeburg
Karl Liebknecht, Magdeburg
Werk Georgi Dimitroff, Magdeburg
Polysius, Dessau
7. Oktober, Magdeburg
Geraetewerk Schoenebeck, Schoenebeck / Elbe
Karl Marx, Magdeburg
Berliner Bremsenwerk, Berlin

Notes on SAG AMO

2. New appointments in USIG and SAG AMO.

- c. Social intercourse between German and Russian employees at the SAG AMO, Magdeburg, was formerly nonexistent. However, new regulations, issued after 17 June 1953, instructed Russian employees to cultivate friendship with their fellow German employees, even in private life.
- d. On 15 July 1953, a cash payment was made to Karl Liebknecht, Magdeburg, by SAG AMO of 480,000 DM (W) for the purchase of steel boiler plates in the West.

Dissolution of Pirna, Saxony

3. Two engineers formerly employed in the aircraft design offices in Pirna, Saxony, have now taken up employment at SAG AMO, Magdeburg. Up to 30 June 1953, both engineers had been employed at Pirna, Saxony, in the department of scientific development, the division of engine construction and development.
4. The Ministry of Transport and Agricultural Machine Construction, Dessau (formerly Junkers, Dessau), has also been dissolved, and only small groups of the employees still remain at the site to close down the plant. Former employees of the firm, Polysius, Dessau, who were recruited for the Ministry have been allowed to return and take up their former employment at Polysius, Dessau.
